MASTER PROGRAMME

The double Master in Hospitality and Business Management programme at Swiss Educational College is a specialised business and hospitality-related Master's degree that covers an intensive two-semester curriculum and two intense industrial training sessions. This rigorous academic programme is based on the Master's degree requirements that cultivate strategic thought and quantitative skills, a combination essential in today's upper management positions.

Critical thinking and analytical ability are core to our philosophy, making our Master's Programme perfect for future hospitality professionals. The students will earn a Double Qualification after completing our Master's programme. Depending on the study interest, the students can choose their major for the double degree.

* Students receive a Swiss Educational College and UK framework qualification transcript and individual qualification for each year study. The minimum duration to complete the Master's programme is 1.5 years.

We take great pride in maintaining a fair and transparent policy when determining tuition fees for our students across different course levels. While we ensure that cost fragmentation does not compromise the quality of our education, we also recognise the need to consider the global financial landscape to support potential hospitality learners worldwide.

To this end, we offer scholarships deducted from our regular fees to assist students from countries affected by the global financial recession. Furthermore, we carefully evaluate the academic achievements of our prospective students and provide scholarships to those who meet the qualifying criteria. This approach allows us to support and empower students who demonstrate both need and merit, ensuring that financial barriers do not hinder access to quality education.
